In reply to yrs. of
I am desired to send cpy of a notifn granting Magl. powers permanently to the Munsiff of the Ashtagram Divn.

Though it is not necessary that the Mysore Asst should exercise Magl powers non commencement that he should do so as a good rule it is but I am to state in Mr. Evans's opinion desirable that he should be invested with powers in order that when an emergency may arise the D.C. can refer a case to him or give him power under Sec 25 to entertain cases. The Chief Commr assigns no territorial jurisdiction accordingly to this Magte.

I am to suggest that the Jail Asst of Mysore & Bangalore & the Munsiffs of Closepet & Shimoga alone should be similarly empowered.

J.C. recommends 2nd Cl powers to all except the Mysore Munsiff. Might not the Mysore Asst also get powers & D.C. be told he is not to exercise them except in an emergency? He might have powers but territorial jurisdiction so that he sits only to try cases referred to him. — MC 14/6 Jr.

Sir,

Under the terms of the Chief Commissioner's Notification, No. 78 dated 12th June 1879, the Criminal Jurisdiction of the Munsiff of Chitaldroog, was made Coterminous with his Civil Jurisdiction, in which case, the Hoblis of Huliyar, Simonahalli, Kandekere and Muddanahalli, in the Badihal Taluk, of the Chitaldroog District which were, for convenience sake, included in the Civil Jurisdiction of the Turuvekere Munsiff's Court, Tumkur District, will be excluded from the territorial Criminal Jurisdiction of the Munsiff of Chitaldroog.

2. I would, however, recommend at the suggestion of the District Magistrate, in order to avoid inconvenience, that the the above named Hobbis, be included in the Criminal territorial Jurisdiction of the Munsiff of Chitaldroog.
